ported and widely believed, that they voted for Pierce at the last Presidential election.

Mr. Gilman is a straight-out honorable man, and refused to aid in this trick of the Democrats.

If the other gentlemen voted for Pierce, or aided the Democrats last year to defeat the Whig ticket, it is consistent for them to be used at this time, and it is excellent policy for them to be so, on all subjects which now agitate the public mind. It is hardly enough to call them "old and well tried Whigs,"—all know that a few years, even a few days work great changes in the minds of men in pursuit of office.

There were those "old and well tried Whigs" last year who made a rush on that same qualification of Whigs for the nomination of Register of Deeds, they were all disappointed in their hopes, and immediately from "old and well tried Whigs" they became the worst opponents of the Whig candidates and Whig principles. These gentlemen are either candidates now against the Whigs or aiding the Democrats to elect them.

A party organization to be productive of any good, must follow out the doing of regular conventions, whose acts are marked by candid and fair deliberation. All must not expect to be perfectly satisfied with the nomination of every candidate. But when the convention has pronounced its voice, and honestly too, every one who belongs to the party, who organ it, should hesitate long before he aids to disorganize. The Whig ticket as presented by the Convention and the Committee for Senators, is a strong one, in ability, influence and patriotic devotion to public good.

Let every Whig go to the polls with a determination to do his duty, to himself and the Convention, who remain at it, and victory will be ours. A defeat of the Pilgrimage party in this County will be hailed with joy by the wings of the whole State. Let every man be active and ready to charge the enemy in front, and thwart treason in our own camp.

Per Order.

On the first instant the Whig party in this County with great unanimity re-nominated their Senatorial ticket of last year for your franchise at the coming election for State and County officers. The Convention which convened, by regular call, at Bangor on the first instant, deemed it due to Messrs. Butman, Blake, and Muzzy, for their ability, faithfulness and devotion to the public good, to place their names again before the people. They again nominated them by a vote in their convention overwhelming in number and influence. On the second instant the undersigned received a letter from Mr. Butman, enclosing again to be a candidate, thus leaving a vacancy on our ticket. The undersigned have taken the liberty to recommend to you as a substitute for Hon.

Samuel Butman, Hiram Ruggles, Esq., of Carmel. The time is too short for a re-assembling of the Convention. Mr. Ruggles is already put in nomination for Senator, by a large and respectable meeting of citizens without distinction of party, and also has been nominated by the Free Soil party. If the Whigs should generally adopt him as a candidate, as we trust they will, he will be elected by a large majority. We believe the highest interests of the people demand of us this course, to save the county from the hands of the spoiler.

Mr. Ruggles is opposed to Pilgrimage and his action on, and belongs to the people. He sympathizes with the people in all the great questions which now agitate the public mind, and if elected will join the voice and vote to give utterance in the Senate to the true interests of the people of Penobscot County.

The ticket will stand for Senators, Newell

Blake, Franklin Muzzy, and Hiram Ruggles.

These names will be a rallying point for numbers which will be irresistible at the polls.

With this ticket victory is certain.

Geo. W. INGLETON.

JAMES S. SAWYER.

J. S. BERRY.

JAMES H. NACKENBURY.

W. J. HAMMILL.

A. C. FLETCHER.

The Bangor Democrat for the purpose of making out the "Bolters" at the late whig convention plenty large takes the whole number of delegates chosen to the convention, and gives the difference to the "Bolters." The fact however is, that some of the delegates returned were not in the city, and others were not present at the moment the ballot was taken, so that the Democrat was more than "liberal" to the "Bolters." But it is well known that it had an object in view. Its sympathies are truly with the "Bolters."

The managers of the Horticultural Exhibition, desire that the ladies of the city should interest themselves in decorating the City Hall for the occasion, and that they should one and all contribute bouquets and plants, and cut flowers for the exhibition, on Wednesday next. It will require the active, energetic, of all the friends of Horticulture in the city to make the exhibition of the 14th inst. what it should be.

The Horticultural and Journal of Rural

Art and Rural Life, Co., September, 1883.

There is no such work in this country so well adapted to the wants of cultivators as this elegant monthly, and scarcely any of more general interest. Its illustrations are of fine picturesque style from the suggestive character, which to practical men, is worth much.

The increasing attention paid to rural affairs, the elegance and poetry of rural life, makes this magazine highly necessary to all farmers, in order that they may be fully posted up as to current principles of rural taste and correct methods of culture. The new hands into which this publication has come prove themselves fully worthy of their high trust, since they manifest with singular ability, its usefulness and its favorable influence.

Messrs. Patch &amp; Lewis have this work on their shelves.

The tornado on Wednesday afternoon destroyed a large quantity of trees in the neighboring towns. In North Olmsted the house and barn of Mr. Stevens were blown down and another house in the village was destroyed.

Revenge reaps no reward. It is its own most cruel punishment. The thief is death.

Deeds of horror are its luxuries.

Custom will have the same effect, with respect to death, as to other frightful things it will take off its supply.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

I enclose the following paragraph from your paper of this morning:

We obtained a glimpse for a short time last evening, of a copy of a political economizing pamphlet, headed "The True Whig."

It is probably the joint production of Mr. L.

Sanborn, Isaac G. Haynes, editor of the Democrat, and Dudley Lewis, as they were seen, we are informed, correcting the proof sheets.

It is about such a document as these men, at the present time, would be likely to get up, protesting to be Whigs in order to draw away votes from the ticket nominated by the whig convention, and thus to secure a triumph to Wild Cat Localism.

I had just as much to do in "correcting the proof sheets" and writing the editorial articles in your own paper of yesterday, as in preparing or correcting the matter contained in the "True Whig," and so far as I know and believe, no Democrat had anything more to do with it than myself.

Please make the proper correction, in justice to all concerned, by inserting this note in your next issue, and oblige

Your ob't serv't,

I. C. HAYNES.

Thursday, Aug. 8.

The above denial of Mr. Haynes, will, of course, excuse him from any part in the authorship of the "Bolters" hand-bill, although our informant verily believed that he had good reason for his statement to us, but it seems he was not quite correct.

It is quite clear that Mr. Sanborn furnished an early copy of his document to the gentleman mentioned, and they probably enjoyed with him, its falsity and its filth.

To the readers of the W-ny

Will you read the Truth.

A MEDICINE must have merit and great care to too stand the test of time. A medicine of putting can galvanize a worthless article so as to keep it alive as a good medicine if it be not really so.

Our medicine will live because our people extend its sales year after year. It is not the people readily give their money to a medicine that has been in the market for years. Its fame passes from mouth to mouth. It is not that newspapers can spread it. It is the people who are confessing to the cure that it is true. It is the people who are saying we will do for you as we have done for ourselves.

People who advertise ment, but worse, when faced with the possibility that the medical industries could reach a tacit understanding to keep themselves, and through us, very rich. I wish to know how you have responded to the possibility that you might find out that what you have been told is a lie. I will not search out the answers for you, but I think I have seen the light. It is the only way to find out if we are in danger of being deceived for the sake of money. I wish to know if you are "reveling" in the fact that you are in a predicament in my disease. It is not a pleasant thought, but I have no choice, though, brought on by the fact that I have been deceived and altered in my mind. I have come to realize that I am not the roots of the tree, but the tree itself. I am not a body made of flesh and blood, but a mind. The future thereof is not at all certain and dark for its future. I wish to know if you are "reveling" in the fact that you are in a predicament with the same disease, and if you are, what do you do to cope with it? I do not cope with it myself and without that I am sure you do so.

interest of tropical medicine. I have not given up tropical medicine, but I have given up the idea of a tropical medicine direction. I have only used it three times and find that even the doctors are not fast returning to their former natural state.
